P.C.

1. By this petition, the petitioner impugns the decision taken by the Government to give to the petitioner, grant in aid first at 20% under the Government Resolution. No grievance can therefore be made because the petitioner started the school on no grant basis. There is no complete denial of aid by the Government. The impugned order says that it will be considered in a pleased manner. In such circumstances, we see no reason to interfere. Petition dismissed.
